Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how your health information may be used and disclosed and how you may access this information. Please review it carefully.

At AcuSpa, we have always kept your health information secure and confidential. A new law requires us to continue maintaining your privacy, to give you this notice and to follow the terms of this notice.

The law permits us to use and disclose your health information to those involved in your treatment and in normal healthcare operations. For example, one of our staff may enter your information into our computer.

We may share your medical information with our business associates, such as a billing service. We have a written contract with each business associate that requires them to protect your privacy. We may use your information to contact you. We may also want to call and remind you about your appointments. If you are not home, we may leave this information on your answering machine or voicemail or with the person who answers the telephone.

In an emergency, we may disclose your health information to a family member or another person responsible for your care. We may release some or all your health information when required by law. If this practice is sold, your information will become property of the new owner.

Except as described above, this practice will not use or disclose your health information without your prior written authorization. You may request that we not disclose your health information as above. We will let you know if we are able to fulfill your request.

You have the right to know of any uses or disclosures we make with your health information beyond the above normal uses. As we will need to contact you from time to time, we will use whatever address or telephone number you prefer. You have the right to transfer copies of your health information to another practice. We will transmit your information for you, for a nominal processing fee.

You have the right to see and receive a copy of your health information, with a few exceptions. Give us a written request regarding the information you want to see. If you also want a copy of your records, we may charge you a reasonable fee for your copies. You have the right to request an amendment or change to your health information. Give us your request to make changes in writing. We may or may not make the changes you request, but will be happy to include your statement in your file. If we agree to an amendment of change, we will not remove or alter earlier documents, but will add new information.

You have the right to receive a copy of this notice. If we change any of the details of this notice, we will notify you of the changes in writing. You may file a complaint with the Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Ave, SW, Rm 509F, Washington, DC 20201. You will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint. However, before filing a complaint, or for more information or assistance regarding your health information privacy, please contact our privacy officer, Dorothy Pang at 650.588.0888.

This notice goes into effect as of January 1, 2014.

24 hour Cancellation Policy

By keeping your appointments you ensure that you get the best treatment results while also ensuring that your wait times are kept to a minimum.

For your appointment, we set aside one hour of our time for you. We kindly request that you make every effort to keep your appointment.

If you need to move your appointment time within the same day and there is availability, we will be happy to do so without charge. If you miss an appointment, or there is less than 24 notice for a cancellation, there will be a $30 fee.

Thank you for your consideration.

I acknowledge that I have read and agree to the 24 hour cancellation policy.
